IDEAS FOR SUCCESSFUL PACKAGES OF ONE-DAY OUTINGS

Arthur Meyer, a journalist, editor of the "Gaulois" daily newspaper, with the assistance of Alfred Grévin, a famous cartoonist, were the initiators of the Grévin Waxworks, which were inaugurated on June 5th 1882, in the presence of all the Parisian celebrities, the "Tout Paris". The excellent idea of putting on show the people in the news, at a time when the press didn't use photographs much, was an immediate success.

Since 2001, the Grévin Academy, Chaired by Bernard Pivot, meets twice a year to elect 2 to 4 new celebrities.

Some 800,000 visitors come every year to have their photo taken next to their favourite star: Céline Dion, Monica Bellucci, Mozart, Louis XIV, Johnny Hallyday and many more. For the photo album of your dreams and an unforgettable visit.

A FEW FIGURES

- 100 kg of wax every year
- 70 tubes of oil paint for make-up
- 500,000 natural hairs (200g) on some heads
- 5km of thread for sewing per year

DID YOU KNOW ?

It takes 6 months and the talent of 10 different artists to make a wax figure: a sculptor, a caster, a hair implanter, a make-up artist (using oils), an artificial eye specialist, a dental prosthesis expert, a costumer, a seamstress, the artistic department head and the eagle eye of management.

From the first appointment with the celebrities in the Grévin's lofts until they meet their waxwork twin on the day it is unveiled, see all the steps of its creation in the "discovery" area along the visitor's route.

THE HALL OF MIRRORS An adventure to delight eyes and ears

Yes, the Hall of Mirrors is still at the Grévin - built in 1906 and renovated in 2006. There is no comparable Sound and Light show worldwide - both young and old never fail to be delighted. A brilliant start to a visit around the world of illusion.
